
"True colours of Silesia: Strengthening the role of the Silesian R&D Potential for Green Innovations in the European Research Area"

Conference at European Parliament, Brussels, 18th November 2010

Supporting transnational co-operation between R&D institutions and industry in Central Europe - the Fraunhofer MOEZ and its Silesian partners

Dr Jens Boysen, Fraunhofer MOEZ

Events by IETU supported by the Fraunhofer MOEZ

❖ 7-9 October 2009:

3rd International Conference on “Innovative Solutions for the Revitalization of Degraded Sites” in Ustroń

❖ 22-23 October 2009:

“International Forum of R&D for Eco-innovation: Research for combining environmental priorities with economic opportunities”, in the framework of the technology platform ENVITECH-Net and in cooperation with the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research

❖ 24-25 November 2010:

2nd German-Polish on Eco-Innovation: Fostering R&D collaborations for a change, taking place during the POLEKO fair in Poznań, in the framework of ENVITECH-Net and in cooperation with the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research

Partners of the Fraunhofer MOEZ

❖ in the Voivodship of Silesia

- Institute for the Ecology of Industrialised Areas (IETU), Katowice
- Institute of Mechanised Construction and Rock Mining (IMBIGS), Katowice
- Main Institute of Mining (GIG), Katowice
- Silesian Center for Agricultural Counselling (ŚODR), Częstochowa
- Akademia Polonijna, Częstochowa
- University of Silesia (UŚ), Katowice
- Upper Silesian Higher School of Commerce (GWSH), Katowice
- City of Bytom

❖ in the Voivodship Opolskie

- Opole University

❖ in the German border region with Poland

- International Graduate School (IHI), Zittau
- University of Applied Sciences (FH), Zittau